A happy, welcoming care home community

Abbey Rose is a state-of-the-art home in the peaceful suburb of Erdington, comfortably accommodating up to 85 residents amidst luxurious surroundings.

With excellent facilities and living spaces designed specifically with comfort and care in mind, this happy, highly-regarded home offers residents and their families a relaxing, stress-free environment that maximises quality of life.

A wide range of activities and events – tailored to residents' wishes and abilities – support personal enrichment and help nurture a sense of wellbeing.

The dedicated Abbey Rose team goes above and beyond to deliver excellent nursing, residential, dementia and respite care, whilst nurturing the sense of belonging that is so important for every resident. Our aim is for everyone to feel at home – safe, content and loved.

In addition to personalised care and support, residents can enjoy the companionship and enrichment that comes from being part of a warm and welcoming community. Support is extended to family and friends too within the wider Abbey Rose 'family'.

“An excellent care home that is very well run, clean and tidy, and a very well organised facility. The staff are very friendly, helpful and caring. I am so pleased to have my mum placed in this care home.”

Jim B (Son of Resident)

“Mum had a month’s stay at Abbey Rose Care Home when she came out of hospital. I can’t praise all the staff enough, from the cleaners to the laundry staff, reception staff, carers and nursing staff. Communication with us as a family was excellent. Mum progressed more than we thought she could.”

Vanessa B (Daughter of Resident)

Quality without compromise

Designed specifically to support individuals’ needs, Abbey Rose provides a comfortable and calming living environment, with everything residents could wish for at hand.

Each bedroom is spacious, individually decorated and for privacy, features an en-suite bathroom. Communal areas are light-filled and bright - perfect spaces in which to enjoy friendships and socialise, or simply enjoy some relaxing ‘me time’.

Beautiful landscaped gardens feature seating areas and a calming waterfall. Residents with mobility issues who may have difficulty in going outside to enjoy the sunlight will benefit from circadian human-centric tuneable lighting within the home, which helps create a more comfortable environment.

State-of-the-art facilities and amenities

MACC Care has placed considerable emphasis on making excellent facilities and amenities available so that every resident, regardless of their care needs, can be safe and well whilst enjoying life in the home.
