A happy, family environment for you or a loved one

Peaceful and well-established, Austin Rose is a state-of-the-art care home in West Heath, comfortably accommodating up to 80 residents amidst luxurious surroundings.

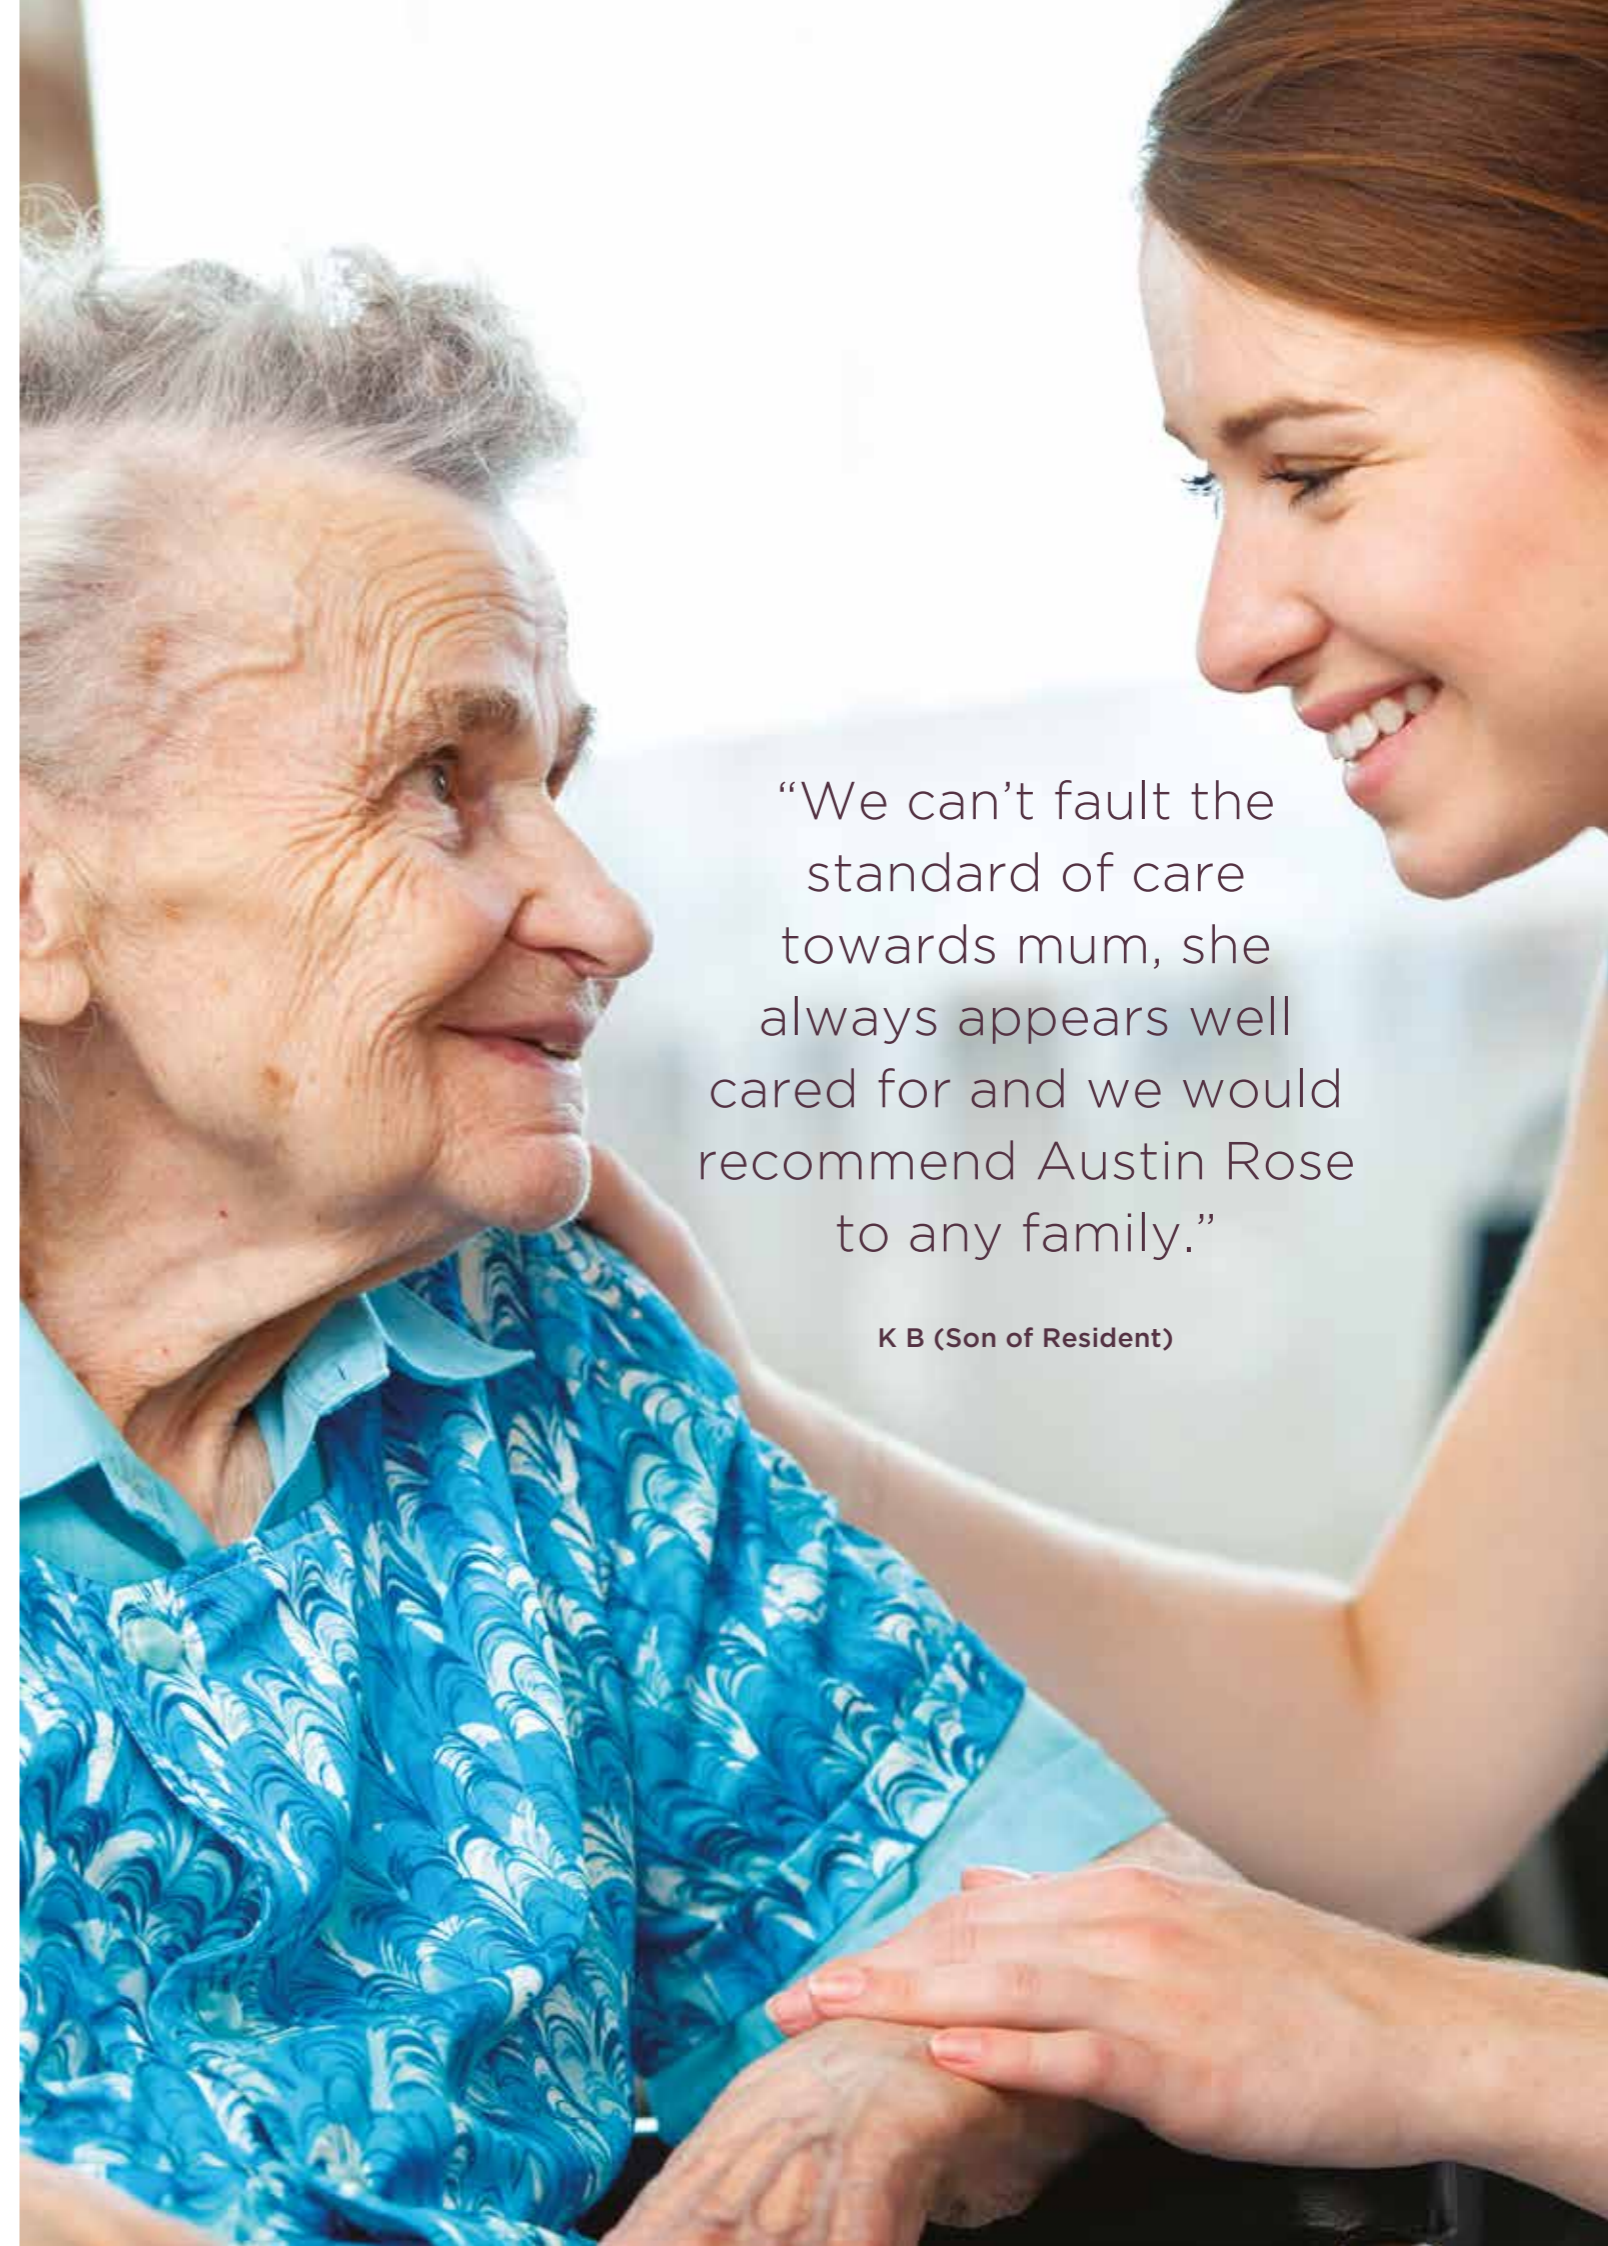

A sanctuary of calm, the home provides a stress-free and happy 'family' environment for every individual, with living spaces inside and out, designed specifically around care and comfort.

Communal areas, including lounges and a café, are spacious and light – lovely spaces in which residents and their families and friends can get together, pursue interests or enjoy new experiences. Outside, residents can enjoy a peaceful sensory garden, complete with fountains and seating areas.

With a varied calendar of activities and events, there's plenty of scope for enrichment, socialising and building friendships.

The dedicated Austin Rose team goes above and beyond to deliver excellent nursing, residential, dementia and respite care whilst nurturing the individual sense of belonging that is essential for emotional wellbeing. Support is extended to family and friends too within the wider care home community.

“We can't fault the standard of care towards mum, she always appears well cared for and we would recommend Austin Rose to any family.”

K B (Son of Resident)

Quality without compromise

Designed with great consideration, Austin Rose provides a comfortable and calming environment for every resident.

Each bedroom is spacious, individually decorated and for privacy, features an en-suite bathroom with a power shower. Many bedrooms offer lovely, expansive views over the attractive gardens and surrounding area.

State-of-the-art facilities and amenities

MACC Care has placed considerable emphasis on making excellent facilities and amenities available so that every resident, regardless of their care needs, can be safe and well whilst enjoying life in the home.
