A room with a view

The View looks and feels like a 5-star hotel. Generously proportioned bedrooms are individually decorated to a luxury standard, each featuring a contemporary en-suite wet room.

Bedrooms also feature a high specification call system, premium quality furniture and furnishings as well as a television. Residents can of course bring their own treasured possessions to make their living space feel their own.

Communal areas at The View are equally inspirational, light-filled and spacious – perfect for socialising, getting involved in a wide range of events and activities or simply enjoying some ‘me-time’ with a good book or magazine.

For enrichment and fun, residents can also look forward to plenty of trips and days out – and friends and family are always welcome to visit or join in too.

Nutritious, hostess-served meals are always something to look forward to, with freshly prepared dishes – using locally sourced ingredients wherever possible – served with a favourite glass of wine. Light refreshments are readily available throughout the day.
