ENRICHING LATER LIFE

MACC
CARE

Compassionate care, every home comfort and a sense of community

Bilbrook Rose is a luxurious care home in the village of Bilbrook, near Codsall, designed and equipped to provide individual residential, nursing, dementia and respite care for a community of 80 residents.

Built to provide a safe, supportive and stimulating environment, Bilbrook Rose is a place where later lives are enriched, individuals can feel valued and your loved one can thrive.

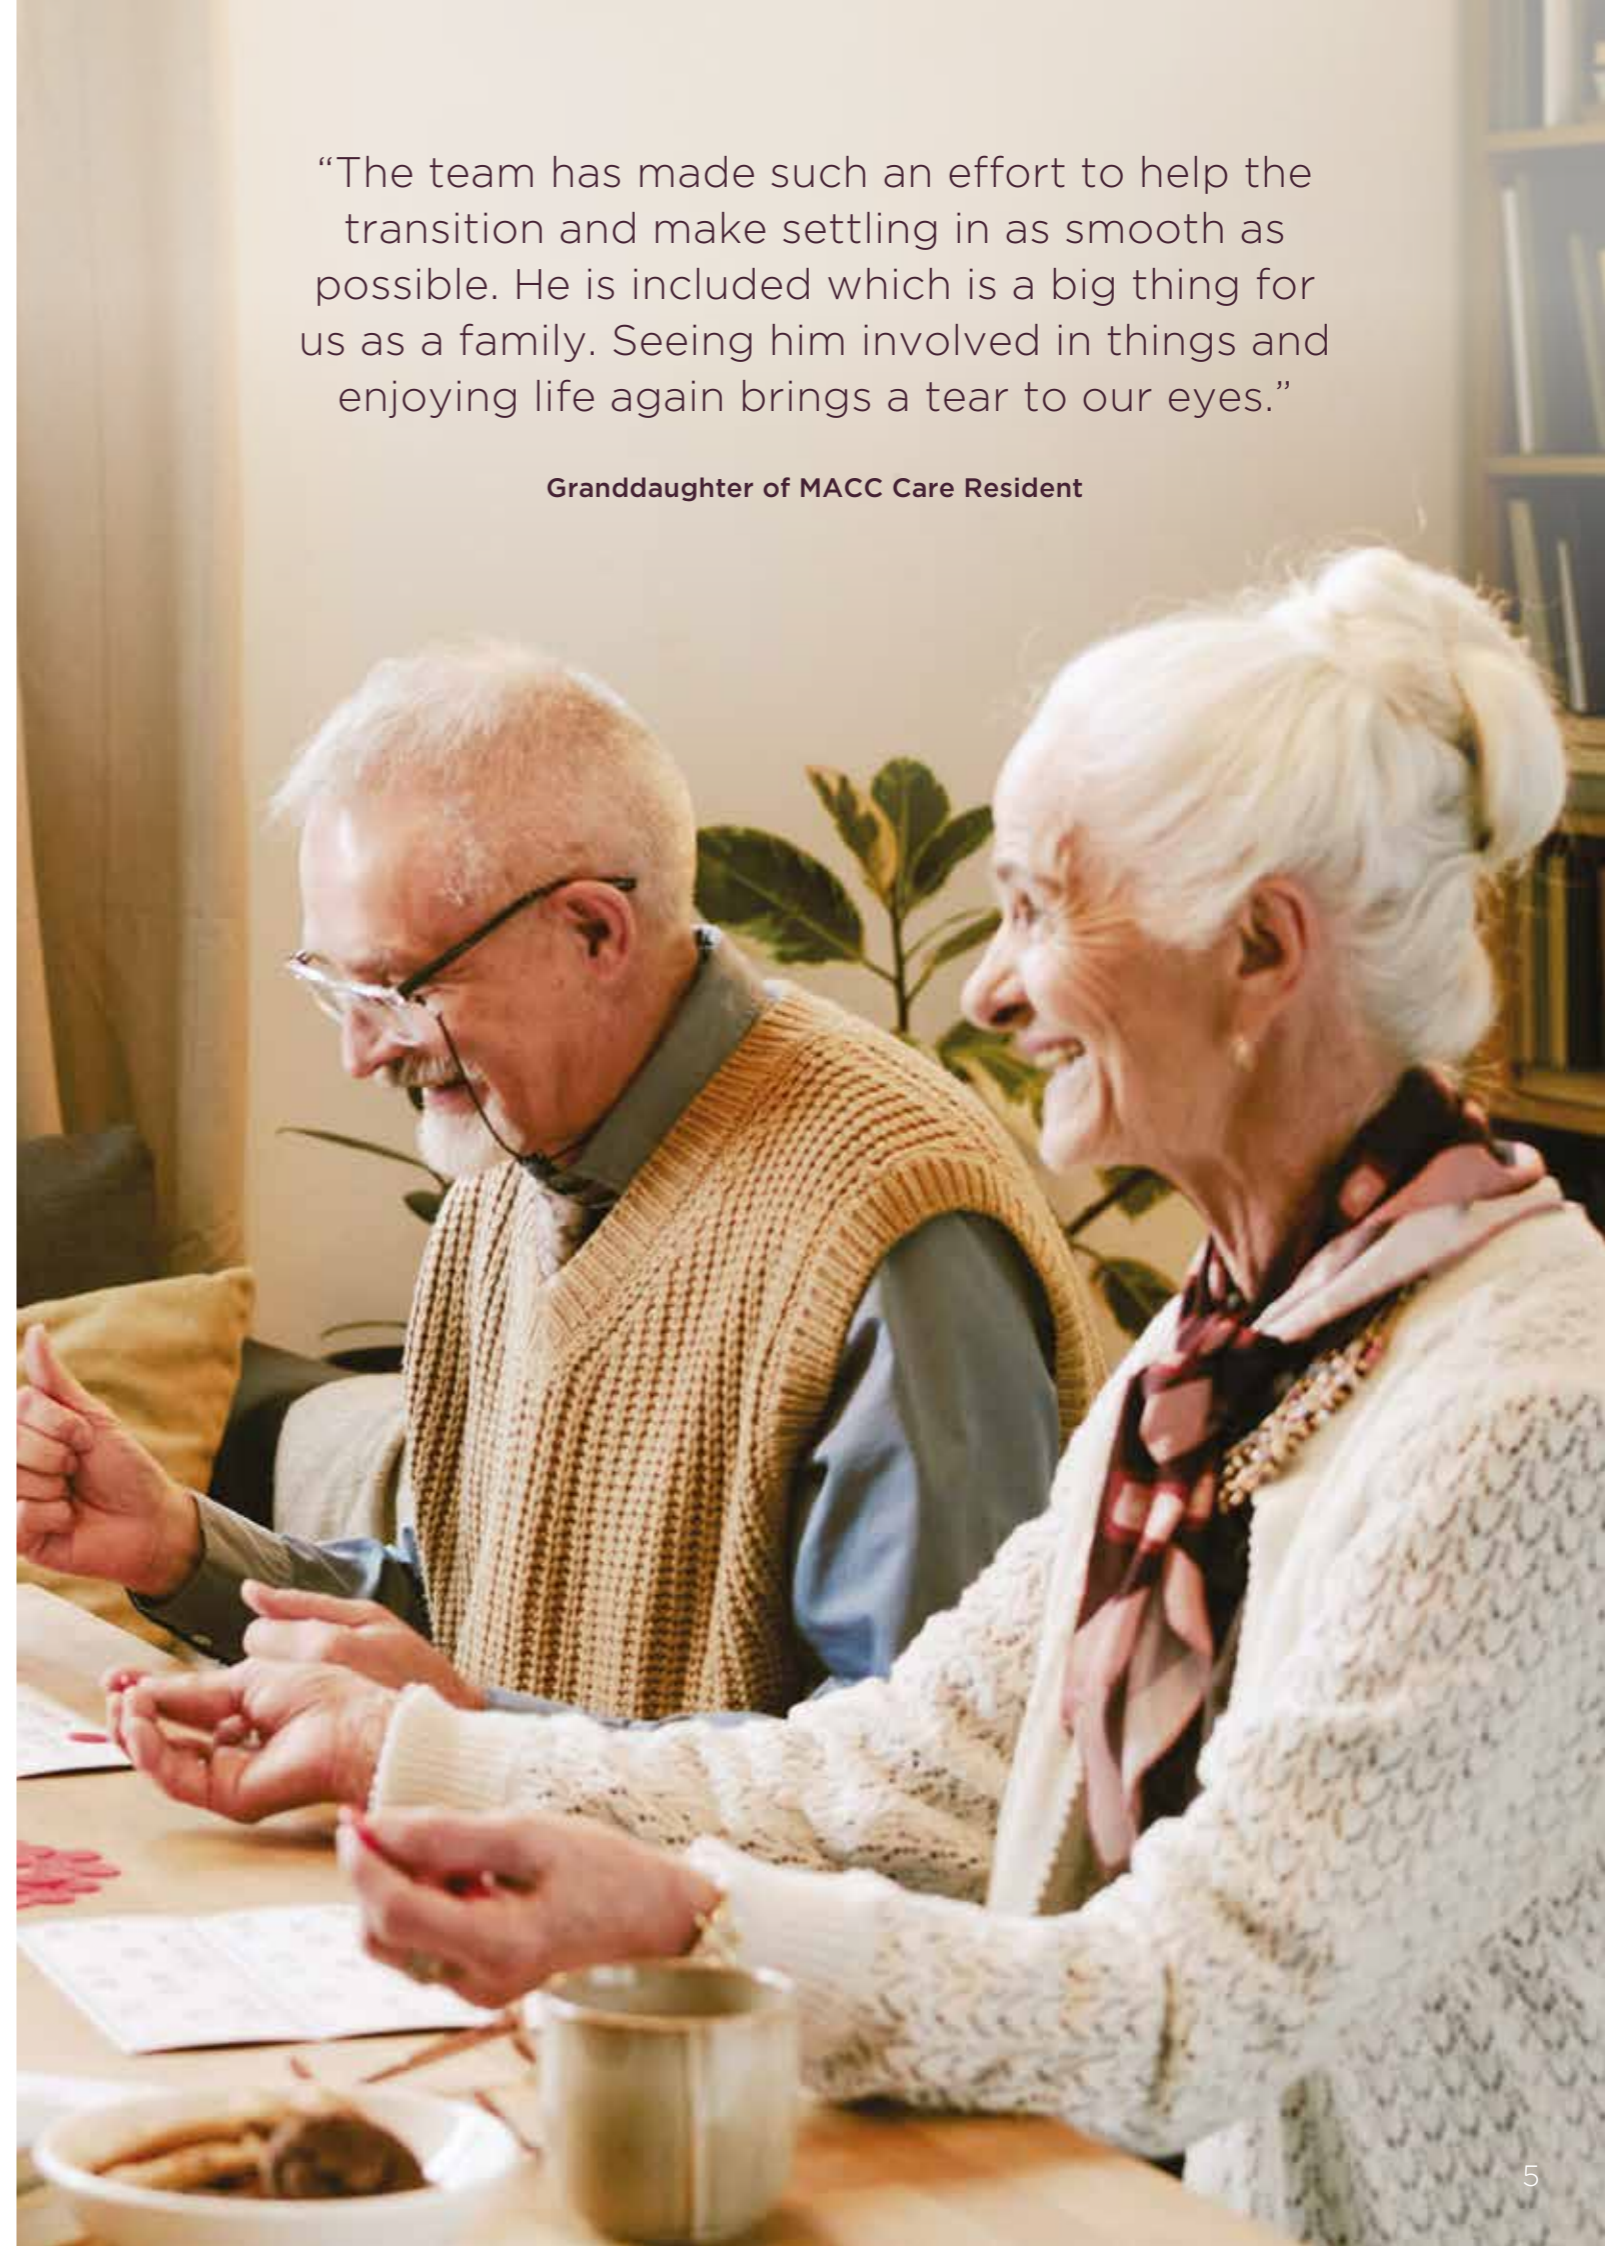

As is the case in every MACC Care home, Bilbrook Rose is staffed by experienced and caring people who soon become 'family.' For peace-of-mind, expert help is always close by and support is extended out to family and friends who make up our community.

With new experiences, favourite pastimes, restaurant-style dining, superb spaces in which to meet with friends and socialise, or simply relax with a cup of tea, our home is shaped to support individual preferences and wellbeing.

What sets us apart

We are confident that the combination of compassionate care, exceptional care home design and community ethos set standards for the local area.

Bilbrook Rose offers a safe, community-orientated home – a place where independence is supported, individuality is recognised and individuals can retain as much choice in their daily routine as possible.

For optimal wellbeing or a spot of pampering, a range of additional services are available, including massages and manicures. We can also arrange aromatherapy, chiropody, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, dental hygiene and eye testing appointments.

- From gentle support with everyday tasks, to expert nursing for a wide range of conditions and specialist support for those living with dementia, your loved one is in safe and competent hands.
- Enjoying tasty food amidst good company is always on the menu. Nutritious meals are home cooked to suit individual preferences and cater for any dietary requirements.
- A particular feature at Bilbrook Rose is a beautiful centralised water garden - a place of calm and tranquility for all to enjoy.
- The village of Bilbrook offers a choice of pubs, local shops and easy access to green spaces including Pendeford Mill Nature Reserve, and excellent transport links.

“The right care and support within an uplifting environment can make such a difference in later life. We are here to ensure friendships can blossom, families can make the most of time spent together and no-one need ever feel lonely or isolated. While every resident can retain their sense of self and independence, it's important that they can be part of a nurturing community; secure, cared for and valued.”
