Quality residential, nursing, dementia and respite care amidst luxurious surroundings

Perdiswell Rose is a state-of-the-art, luxury care home in Worcester, designed to deliver professional and personalised care and support for up to 76 residents.

Beautifully appointed throughout, this bespoke home is divided into three distinct suites located on separate floors – ‘homes within a home’ – each meticulously designed to support individual residential, nursing and specialist dementia care needs. Close-knit and exclusive, these small communities offer security, support and a sense of belonging for everyone.

“Recently one of the carers summed it up when she said that staff don’t just care for their residents, they care for their families. Every single member of staff has treated my husband and our family as individuals and have done their absolute utmost to provide care which is tailored and personal.”
